THE GOOD ADVICE CUPCAKE

Meet Cuppy–aka The Good Advice Cupcake–the Internet’s favorite confectionary badass! BuzzFeed creators Loryn Brantz and Kyra Kupetsky contrast Cuppy’s cute, pink aesthetic with the character’s mouthy life advice, the theme being: “Believe in Yourself, B*tch.” It’s the kind of encouragement we all need—even if it’s from an animated talking cupcake instead of an IRL therapist.

- More than 3.8 million followers on social media

WALTER GEOFFREY

Amber Martin bought Walter because she wanted a pup she could spoil, and when she found pictures of the sassiest little French bulldog she knew she had to have him. She soon discovered his (not so) inner diva and realized he needed his own Instagram page—and the rest is history. Walter loves travel, bossing people around, medium-well steaks, and fancy treats.

- Walter has 790K Instagram followers, 550K Facebook followers, and 91K YouTube subscribers (as of September 2020).
- WG is labeled the #1 best engaged-with pet influencer on social media and has made appearances on “The Tonight Show with Jimmy Fallon” and “Good Morning America,” among several others.

WEONLYRATEDOGS

New to the WeRateDogs line of calendars comes WeONLYRateDogs, featuring some of the funniest fails of WeRateDogs followers to simply submit canine photos. In less than five years, WeRateDogs has grown exponentially, boasting one of the internet’s most engaged audiences. Still, people can’t seem to get it—they don’t rate pandas, dinosaurs, or whatever odd creature someone sends in. They ONLY rate dogs.

- Fifteen million impassioned dog lovers go crazy for products based on creator Matt Nelson’s WeRateDogs feeds from Twitter, Instagram, and Facebook.
- Matt Nelson and WeRateDogs have partnered with Disney, Netflix, ESPN, and more.

WEONLYRATEDOGS 2022 WALL CALENDAR

New! The premise for WeRateDogs is SO clear: they rate DOGS—not pandas, dinosaurs, or whatever photos someone sends in. Just DOGS—adorable, precious pups—which you definitely will not see in this delightfully comical calendar.

- WeRateDogs (@dog_rates) has 8.7 million Twitter followers and 1.6 million Instagram followers (@dog_rates)
- Four (totally disguised) dogs each month with adorable, funny captions!
- Additional features include bonus spread for September–December 2021, generous grids for writing appointments and reminders on dates, official major world holidays, and moon phases

TOMORROW I’LL BE 2022 WALL CALENDAR

New! Journey through the beautifully hand-lettered messages by award-winning illustrator Jessica Hische in this uplifting and positive calendar. Based on The New York Times best-selling books Tomorrow I’ll Be Brave and Tomorrow I’ll Be Kind, each exquisitely illustrated word of wisdom, hope, and inspiration is a reminder that tomorrow is another day—to be brave and do our best, and to be kind and help others.

- For nearly fifteen years, Jessica Hische has collaborated with clients in multiple industries, including Adobe, American Express, Papyrus, Target, and USPS.
- Hische’s work has been featured in numerous design and illustration publications.
- Additional books are scheduled to be released in 2021 and 2022.

BIRDS OF THE WORLD: THE BIRDS OF WINGSPAN

NEW! Some tabletop board games are pretty, and other games are predominantly fun, but the game Wingspan is both achingly beautiful and fun. Published by Stonemaier Games and designed by Elizabeth Hargrave, the best-selling game is extremely engaging—but it’s the gorgeous illustrations of birds by Natalia Rojas and Ana María Martínez that grab audiences and help keep gamers coming back. Birds of the World: The Birds of Wingspan 2022 wall and engagement calendars feature captivating bird illustrations created by Colombian artists Natalia Rojas and Ana María Martínez seen in the blockbuster board game and is sure to appeal both to birders and to fans of the board game.

- Wingspan won the prestigious Spiel de Jahres world prize and was also the best-selling game of the year, selling more than 120,000 copies in its first year.
- These calendars feature birds from around the world, many of which will appear in new Wingspan game expansions.
- Includes information about each showcased bird.
- Appeals both to fans of the board game and also to avid birders.
