MYTH, ORIGIN & FICTION

Featuring our headline series, with new short stories, mythology, folktales and ancient origins. And introducing Romantic Fantasy into the mix.

The oral traditions of early and ancient peoples who engaged with phenomena of the natural world soon became myth and legend which, when intermingled with history, were transformed into epic works of literature and folktales, creating the foundation of modern storytelling.

New series and new stories bring new perspectives on the distant past, and visions of the future as we explore ancient history, mythology and original fiction.

Japanese Woodblocks. Michael Kerrigan • Imprint: Flame Tree Illustrated

Towards the end of his life and much inspired by Japanese water gardens, Monet spent a great deal of time in his beloved Giverny. Its famous green wooden footbridge was built across the water and its waterlilies became the focus of perhaps the most famous series of paintings the world has ever seen. A beautiful book of masterworks.

Author: Julian Beecroft (PhD) is a writer specializing in art and cultural history. He has written books on Monet, Renoir, Dalí, Kahlo and Art Nouveau. He is also the author of Lost Cities and Secret Cities, as well as a guide to the culture and history of London. He has contributed to the Guardian and the Telegraph.
